Language Power

Play & imagine · Children

(Verse 1)

I speak with a whistle, a whisper, a cheer—
A giggle, a jiggle, a “hi” and “I’m here!”
From rooftops in Rio to sidewalks in Spain,
Our words ride the wind like a colorful train.

They bounce through the trees, they skip through the air,
They tangle with tumbleweeds, swirl through your hair!
Say “hola” or “hi,” or just wiggle your shoe—
The power of language is waiting for YOU!

(Chorus)

Language power! Let it play!
It zings and it zaps in a wiggly way!
It skips over borders, it zooms through the sky,
It dances in dreams and it never asks why.

Say “hello,” say “salām,”
say “jambo” or “nǐ hǎo”—
Each word brings a smile that lights up the day now!

From giggles to greetings, from whispers to shouts,
Language is magic inside and out!

(Verse 2)

From mountaintop whispers to oceans that sing,
Each dialect dances, each word has a wing!
A swirl from the desert, a skip through the snow,
Wherever we wander, our voices can go.

Our stories wear sneakers, they hop and they glide,
With laughter and rhythm, they bounce side to side.
So whether you speak with a click or a cheer,
Your language has power—it’s welcome right here!

(Final Chorus)

Language power—loud and clear!
From every heart, a voice we hear.
Whether it whispers or bounces or sings,
Every word has magical wings!

So wave your words, let stories soar—
Language connects us and opens the door.
In every tongue, in every tone,
Our words can travel on their own
