Mariposa

Play & imagine · All ages

Little spark, little light,
Waking up, taking flight,
Tiny wings by your side,
Feel the flutter rise inside!

Listen—
hoo-hoo-hey!
Feel it—
hey-hey-ho!

Mariposa—fly, little one,
Twirl in the air, spin in the sun!
Laugh with the breeze, dance with the sky,
Show the world you’re ready to fly!

Mariposa—bright as can be,
Colors that shimmer wild and free!
Open your wings—let your heart try,
You were made to lift and rise!

Skip the wind, hop the stone,
You’re not small—you’ve grown and grown!
Every flap, every glide,
Tells the world you’ve got your stride!

Hear it—
hoo-hoo-hey!
Feel it—
hey-hey-ho!

Mariposa—fly, little one,
Twirl in the air, spin in the sun!
Laugh with the breeze, dance with the sky,
You were made for flying high!

Up the hill,
’Cross the stream,
Lift your wings—
Chase your dream.

Every swirl,
Every turn,
Teaches you
What you can learn.

Mariposa—fly, little one,
Shine in the light you’ve become!
Every color tells your story,
Every heartbeat sings your glory.

Mariposa—laugh as you rise,
Fill the air with your surprise!
Flutter bright, so wild and free—
You’re exactly meant to be.
