Pass It On

Grow community · All ages

Verse 1

You hold a world inside your voice,
A story shaped by sound and choice.
Each word you speak, each phrase you say,
Is a gift you carry every day.
Don’t keep it hidden, don’t let it fade—
That language love your elders made.

Chorus

Pass it on, pass it strong—
Every language, every song.
To your children, to your friends,
Let the river never end,
Let the river never end.

Verse 2

Power lives in every tongue,
Old and wise or just begun.
Teach the words that made you you,
So the world can learn them too.
It’s more than grammar, more than sound,
It's roots and wings on sacred ground.

Chorus

Pass it on, pass it strong—
Every language, every song.
To your children, to your friends,
Let the river never end,
Let the river never end.

Bridge

It’s lullabies and market calls,
It’s kitchen talk and classroom halls.
Each language spoken, signed, or sung,
Is the bridge from old to young.
A legacy not in a book,
But in every glance and every look.

Chorus

Pass it on, pass it true—
Someone’s future lives in you.
In your whisper, shout, or song,
Keep the living language strong.

Verse 3

Not just words, but ways to see—
A map of hearts and history.
Some accents thick, some light and free,
Every tone’s a melody.
With every lesson, with every rhyme,
We weave the fabric, a thread through time.

Chorus

Pass it on, pass it strong—
Every language, every song.
To your children, to your friends,
Let the river never end,
Let the river never end.

Outro

So raise your voice, let it be known,
In every heart, a seed is sown.
Together we'll shine, our stories spun,
In every accent, we are one.
